Children and Youth – Elizabeth Saigaities		Nothing to report.
Adult – Sharon Collins		Chili/Soup cookoff is in February.
Worship – Deb Bunnell		Gail Nedimyer has the names of organ tuners. Property Board is covering the cost of a new small refrigerator for the Sacristy. Ushers are ready to go for Christmas eve. A few more are needed for the 10 PM service. Worship Board will be working to reinstitute Coffee Hour after the Sunday services. We also discussed developing a culture of caring for members who could use help. We need to figure out how to identify people who need help - Sue Swope suggested asking Justine about how their former church went about it.
Finance – Jim Conway		The audit was good.

Property – Mike Jones	Bids were received for security systems, in a range from just over $2000-$7800. Rick Fairhead has some useful experience in this area. Grants from FEMA are available, but we need a vulnerability assessment, which Blair Co. Emergency Management Agency can do for us at no cost. A freezer was bought for Outreach at cost from Diamond Supply. Shawn Restly took care of the refrigerator for the Sacristy.
Stewardship – Ken Streilein	The Time and Talent form was mailed out - just one per household, but people can put two sets of initials on it. These will be turned in on Christmas eve. We will review the results at the next CPC meeting, January 18, at 6:00 PM , in order to give us time to review the results.
Continuous Church Improvement – John Mancinelli	They are looking at strategic needs of the congregation. Several boards are talking about internal needs, and how to help people with in-house caring.
Communication – Christina Pavlock	Nothing to report.
Outreach -Lee Augustine	We got a 4th food giveaway from Walmart. It included many pumpkin rolls and produce. There will be a Recovery Prayer Service at the end of January with Ryan.
At Large – Bev Green Sue Swope	N/A
Business Items
Unfinished/Old Business	For the Safety effort: AED, First Aid, and Ushers have been addressed. At the January meeting, Fire Drill will be on the agenda.
New Business	Pastor Dave is looking to access the Google calendar for scheduling. He would like to put the New Member Dinners into a regular schedule.
Lord's Prayer Adjournment Go in peace to love and serve our Lord!	7:53 PM
TIME OF NEXT CPC MEETING: 6:00 January 18, 2024	One hour earlier than usual in order to review Time and Talent sheets.
